

I am in support of Indiana's ban on tele-marketing. They used to wake me up all the time. I have kids in school and do not want to turn the phone off in case of emergency.

Calls just upset me, material in the mail I actually read and thier advertising dollar is better spent.

Again I support the Indiana Telephone Privacy law.